Chapter 217, Laws of 1943
An Act Providing for the Submission to the People, for the Adoption or Rejection of the Public Question

Shall the one hundred sixty-eighth Legislature be authorized to agree, by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses, upon a revised Constitution for the State, which revised Constitution shall include the provisions of Article I of the present Constitution, commonly known as "The Bill of Rights," and shall include provision for a Senate composed of one Senator from each county and a General Assembly composed of not more than sixty members apportioned among the counties as provided by the present Constitution so that each county shall at all times be entitled to one member, and to submit the same as a whole and in such manner as said Legislature shall prescribe to the people, for their approval and ratification or rejection, as a whole, at the general election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-four?
